SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

TO THE BLACK CAT ANNUAL STAFF AND STUDENT BODY:

Each year we eagerly look forward to the Black Cat Annual, knowing that it will give us immediate entertainment and future happiness as we thumb its pages and are again reminded of the pleasant days portrayed therein. The Annual is more than just a book—it is a historical record of our own boys and girls as they develop and emerge into individual characters determined to assume a responsible role in the welfare of their communities.

You, the students of 1949-1950 will, I am sure, assume that responsibility and continue to honor the heritage of your Alma Mater. Your achievements will be watched with interest and pride by your present superintendent, who wish for you the very best.

Congratulations to the Annual Staff and the student body who made such a project possible.

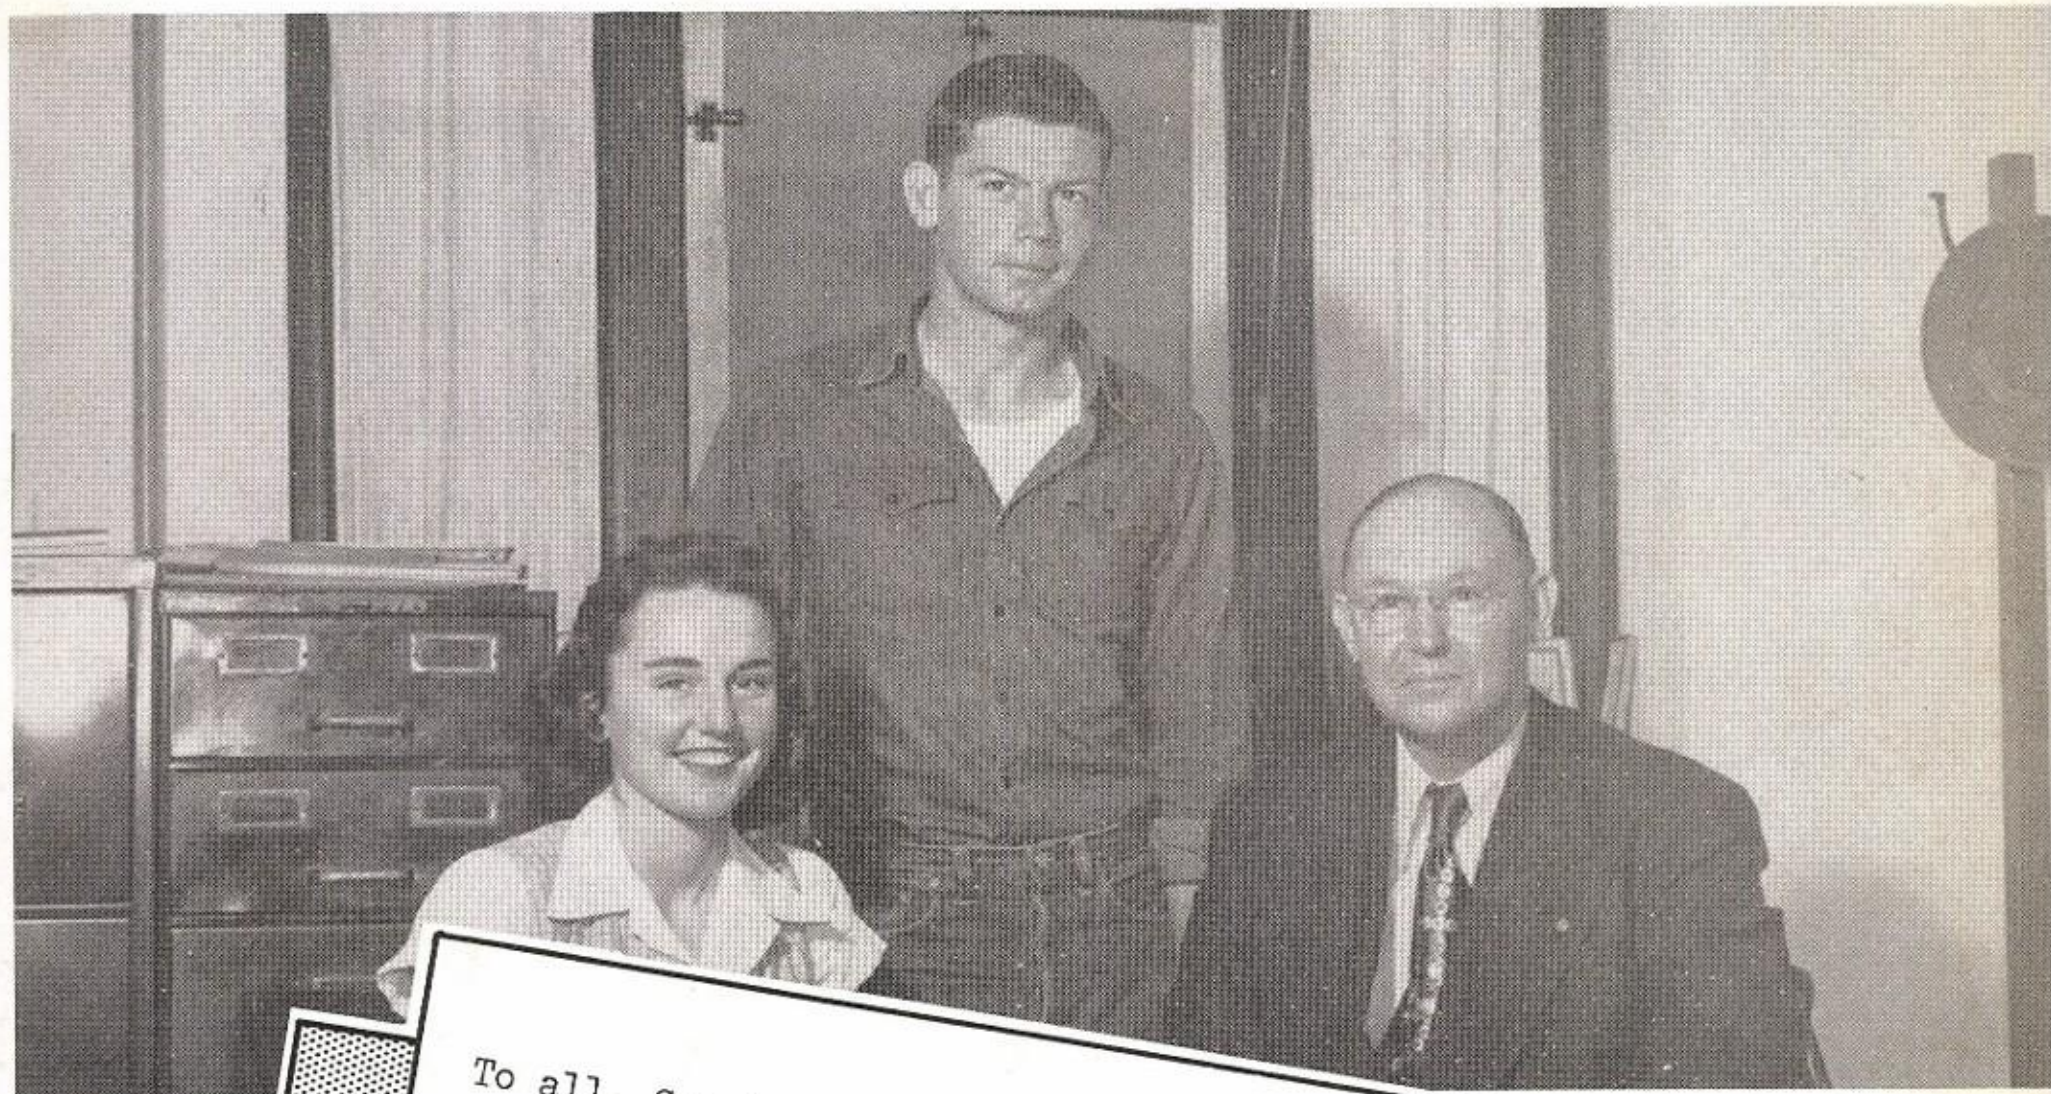

Sincerely,

C. S. Hereford

Mrs. Juanita Maisen
Sec. to Superintendent

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To all, Greetings:

This has been a great year for all of us. It has been a year of victories, not only on the gridiron but also in the classroom. Only dead material ossifies; live matter either progresses or retrogresses. I think that we have progressed.

So in the words of some of our present day song hits, the connecting themes of this Annual, I say "Don't Cry, Joe", for the "Mule Train" is going right along, even though "Careless Hands" may try to hold it back. Let the "old man" dream- perhaps just a "Dreamers Holiday" of better things for you boys and girls, of a new gymnasium perhaps "I Can Dream, Can't I", even though my head grows more bald year by year.

Sincerely,

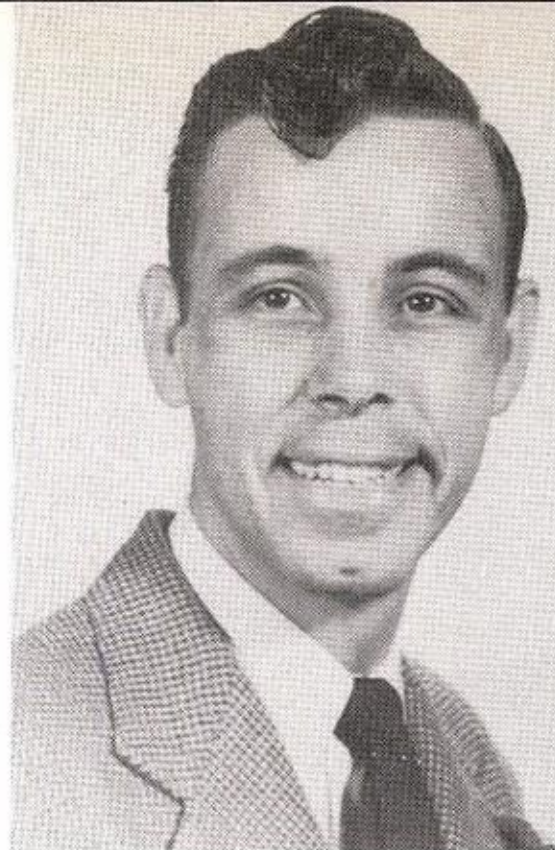

L. C. Wood

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

I had been walking down the streets of "Dreamland" for about five minutes, when I started meeting some of my old classmates. At first I was shocked at the change in everyone, and then I began to enjoy it.

I saw Wesley Adams running out of a jewelry store. He had something clutched very tightly in his hand. Almost at once a squad car arrived and policemen were shooting up the place. So, poor Wesley had turned out to be a robber.

Next I saw June Barnes. She was dressed in a long, black dress, and she stood in a store window. She was modeling for Neiman Marcus.

As I continued down the Main street of Dreamland, a large red and black sign caught my attention. The sign read "Roland Allen Attorney At Law". I wanted to see him, so I opened the door and entered the modern office.

Just as I turned the corner I came face to face with Juanita Bennett. On a long leash running in front of her was a french poodle, and on her arm a foreign looking character. She no longer had red hair, it was now a bright shade of platinum blonde.

I just walked right on. The ambulances were screaming and I saw two cars, wrecked on the corner.

As I made my way through the crowd, I saw Dr. Willis Blackmond attending to an injured man who lay on the curb.

After the accident, I turned into another street.

Down the street I saw someone coming that I recognized as Reba Bond. She carried a huge brief-case and on it was a sign that read "Chief Free-Lance Journalist for the Daily Eagle."

Running wildly after her was Don Braune, shouting instructions. I learned later that he was the hard-boiled Editor of the "Daily Eagle", and that he was quite a success.

I saw a middle-aged lady coming out of the grocery store. I recognized her as Jessie Ruth Bozeman. Following her were three small children. She was having an awful time trying to keep the kids quiet and carry the groceries, and I noticed that her black hair was flecked with grey.

Derrell Carlile, Garland Cain, and James McKisick passed me. They turned into a small hole in the wall, known as "The Gym For Run-down Football players."

I saw a sign that read "Wanda Bradshaw, better known as Torchy", appearing at the opening of the new nightclub. Derwood Kennedy was the owner.

Joe Fortson came hurrying down the street, and Cora Lee Holt was following him. They now owned an Art School.

I began to get hungry so I went into a small hamburger joint. Who should be the owners but Loy and Joan. They were married now and were making a fortune in the hamburger business.

Above their store I saw a face that looked familiar. It was Robert Gonzales and he was a Spanish teacher.

Barry Harvey and Bobby Morgan were now successful farmers.

On a street corner, I saw Willie Lambert selling pencils. He wore dark glasses and carried a cane.

Marching down the street came the Salvation Army.

The band leader was Tommy Pittman. Jesse Pryor and Ronnie Patton were passing the hat.

A new mathematical genius had just replaced Einstein. I noticed that his name was Gene Wofford. The man selling the books was Hollen Chandler.

Nanella Burrows and Bette Thorne were holding a demonstration in one of the department stores. They both were successful Interior Decorators.

Grant Hollingsworth and Bette Bob Manning were making good money. Bette Bob was a woman wrestler, and Grant her manager.

A dance band had just been organized. The leader was Jackie Page and Beverly Conn, the new recording star, was the vocalist.

I saw a sign that read "Joe's Bar-B-Que." Who should be the owner of the restaurant but Joe Ray Holloway. His cooks were Gerald and Troy Henderson.

Bernie McElroy was an expert "bookie" for the race tracks and in his spare time, made counterfeit money.

Paul Sawyer had just won the title "Mr. America" and his chauffeur was Billy Wright.

Robbie Lou Shipp was a maid and I saw her scrubbing the steps of a neighborhood house.

Bobbie Hinchliffe and Roma Ruth were married and I saw them coming down the street with their twelve kids.

Emma Lee Hammill was a model, and she was modeling the new French bathing suits. Her designer was Jan Johnston.

Elizabeth Maddox was a successful teacher in the local high school.

Ida Bess Massey was an instructor in twirling and prancing. Her students were Juanita Gore and Aniece Chrisner who wanted to reduce.

Benita Brown was appearing in a traveling circus. She was known as "The World's Fattest Lady". Another performer was Mary Nell Inderman, doing her bubble dance.

Mary Johnson was a hat-check girl for the "Stork Club". Her assistant was Willene Taylor.

Mary Dee Cobbs and Patsy Crawford had just opened up a beauty salon.

Miriam Jean Williams was running a new singing school. Joyce Tooke was the piano player and Maxine Russell was the first student.

Easter Fay Galloway and Bette Stone were both happily making a home for their husbands.

Marilyn Kitchens was a woman missionary, and was just leaving on a trip to Europe.

Patsy McDonald had just been voted "Miss America". She and Marilyn Padgett were career girls and they shared a penthouse apartment.

Peggy Joyce Cobb and James Morton had just written a book on "Social and Domestic" life, and were having a party.

Lorna Smith was a champion woman tennis player.

The last of my class-mates had passed me by. Suddenly I heard the alarm ringing and I realized that I had been dreaming. Mother hurried me, as I nervously dressed for graduation.

CO-CAPTAIN BILLY WRIGHT, big 200 pound tackle was one of the roughest men in the line. Billy made the All-District second team. This is Billy's second year to letter at Mexia and he completes his eligibility this year.

Co-Captains

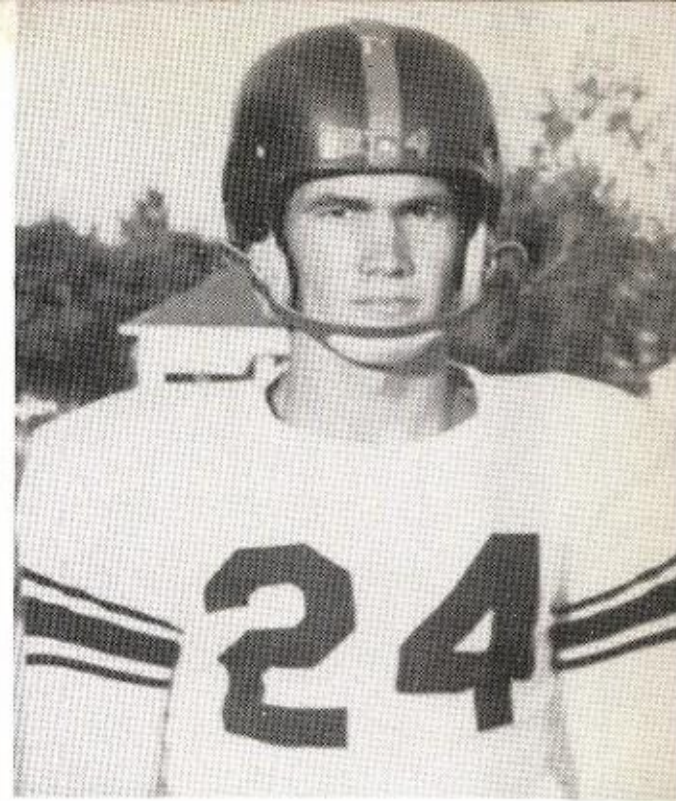

CO-CAPTAIN WILLIE LAMBERT, 175 pound All-District guard, was one of the stalwarts in the Mexia line. Willie was named to the Class A All State team at the tackle position. This is Willie's second year to letter and he completes his eligibility this year.

JAMES (SLICK) McKISSICK, 170 pound All-District guard. Slick was very important to the team because of his great ability to play defensive end. McKissick, who has lettered two years, finishes his eligibility this year.

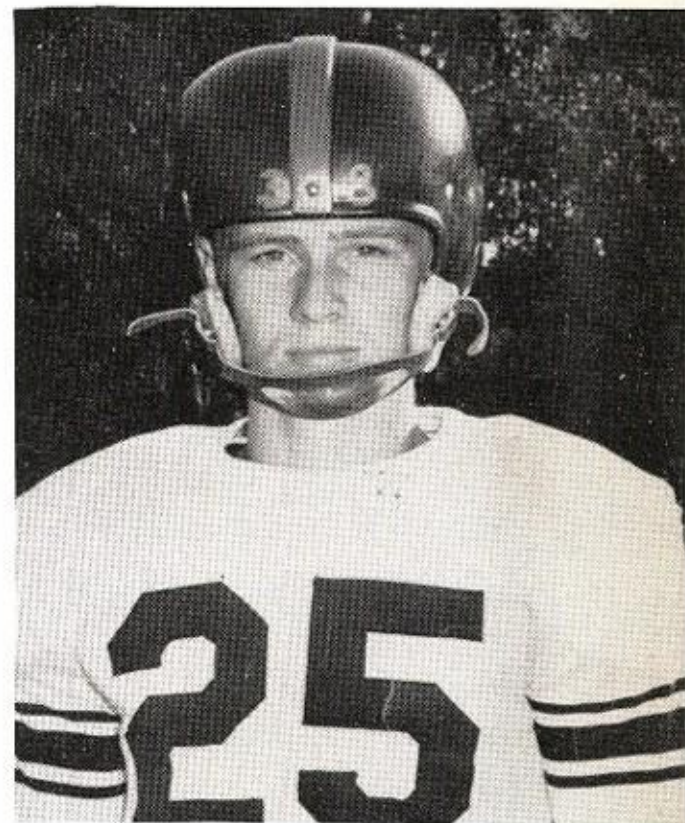

GRANT HOLLINGSWORTH, 160 pound center played only while the Black Cats had the ball. Grant was named to the All-District second team. This is Grant's second year to letter for the Black Cats and he completes his eligibility this year.

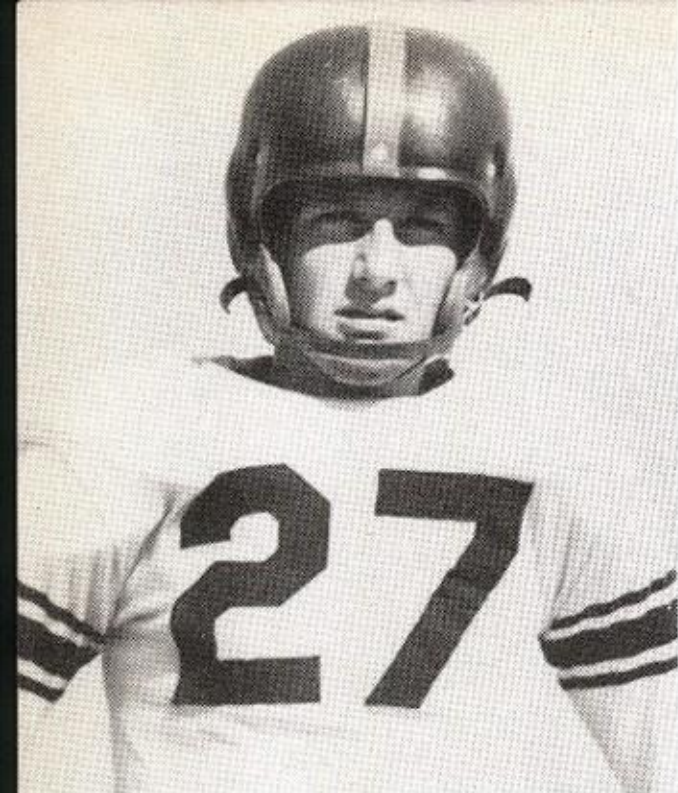

DERRELL CARLILE, 160 pound fullback was one of the main factors behind the successful season of Mexia. This is Derrell's third year to letter at Mexia High. Carlile has been on the All-District team for two straight years and finishes his eligibility this year. Carlile led the Cat scorers this year with 126 points. Derrell was also named to the All-State backfield.

Davis (29) has just caught a pass thrown by Cain (27). Moving in to make the tackle are January (70) and Manning. Backs Carlile (24), Duke (23), Outlaw (26), and Keller (59) of La Vega are out of the play.

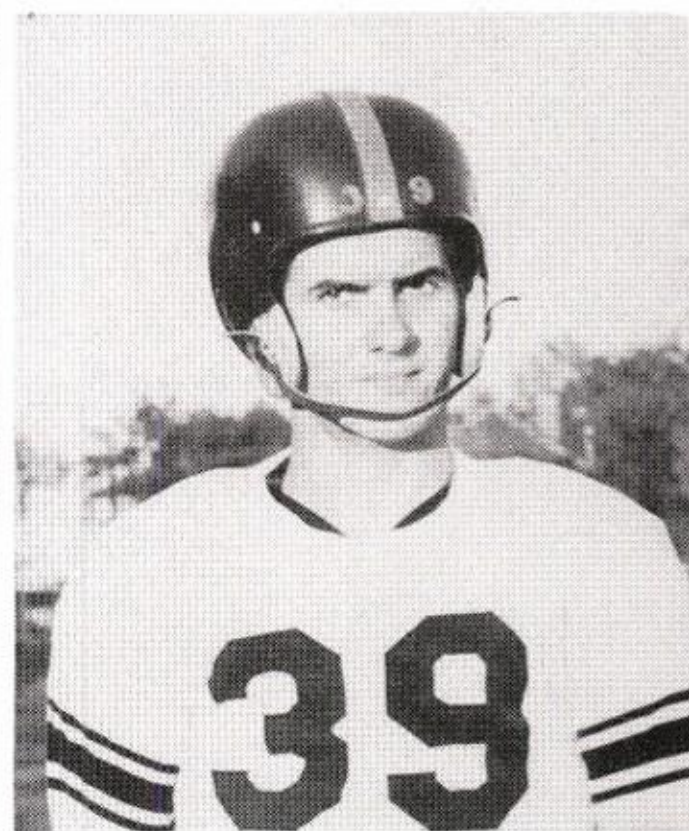

PAUL SAWYER, 136 pound back, was one of the best break away backs in the Mexia backfield. Paul was allowed to play very little defensively. This is Sawyers second year to letter and he completes his eligibility this year.

GARLAND CAIN, was Mexia's sensational passing quarterback. Cain, who lettered for the first time this year, finishes his eligibility this year and weighs 138 pounds. Cain was a sensational passer and threw 15 touchdown passes. Cain was named to the second All-District team.

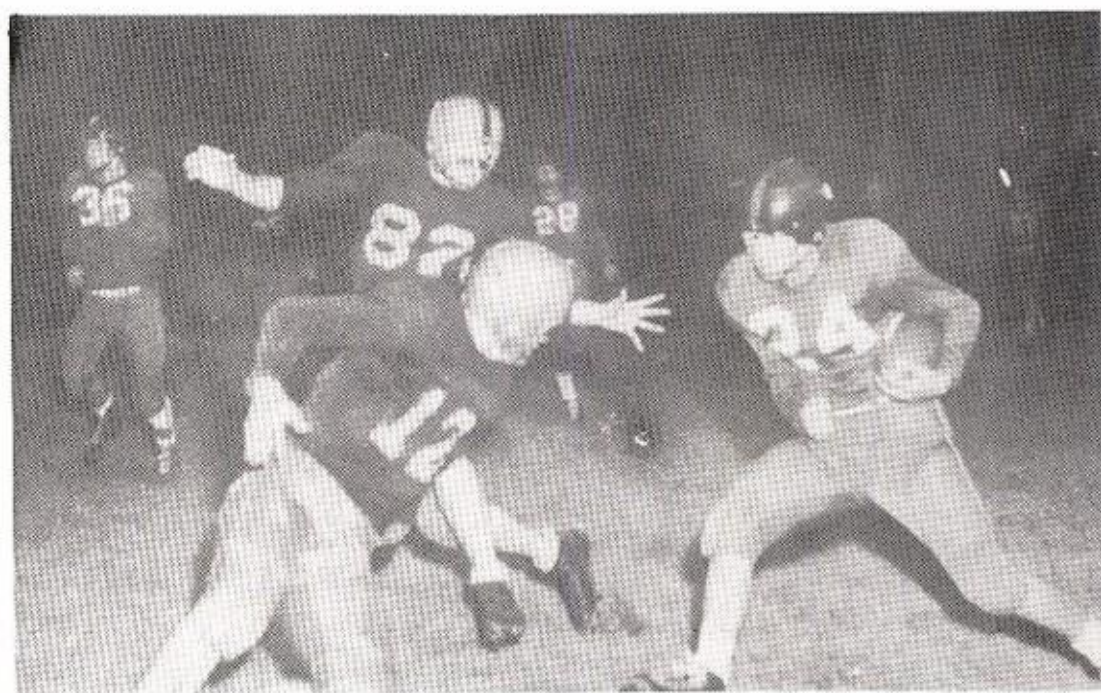

ROBERT CASHION, 200 pound tackle was good on both defense and offense. Robert made the All-District team this year and this is his second consecutive year to place on the mythical team. Cashion is a junior two-year letterman and will return to play for Mexia next year.

DONALD COBB, 175 pound end, played very little when the Cats had the ball but was one of the best defensive ends in the district. Although Cobb is only a junior he will be ineligible next year because of his age. Cobb was on the second team All-District.

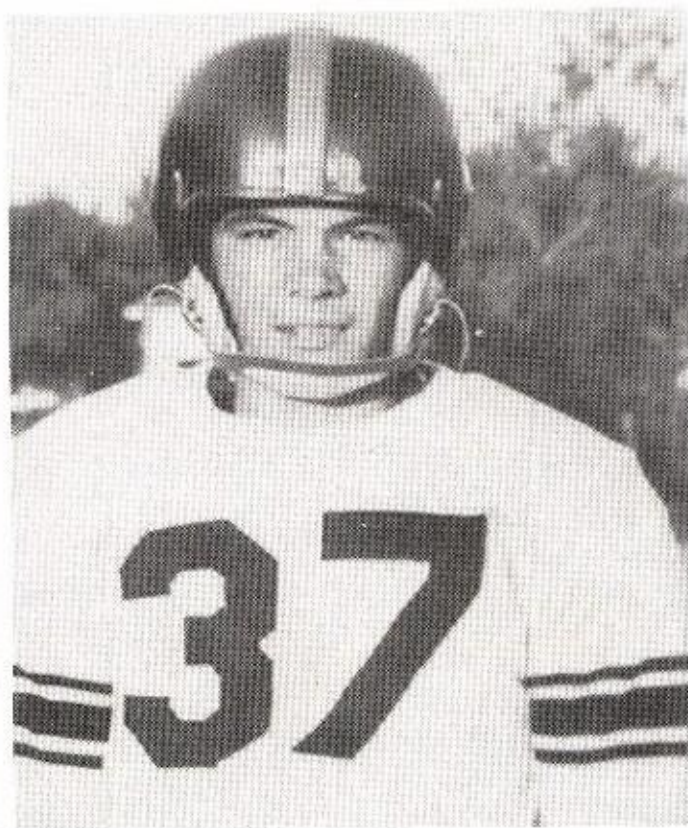

LOY MYERS, 150 pound guard, was used mainly on defense. Loy is a senior and was very valuable to the Cats as a defensive line backer. This is Loy's first year to letter at Mexia.

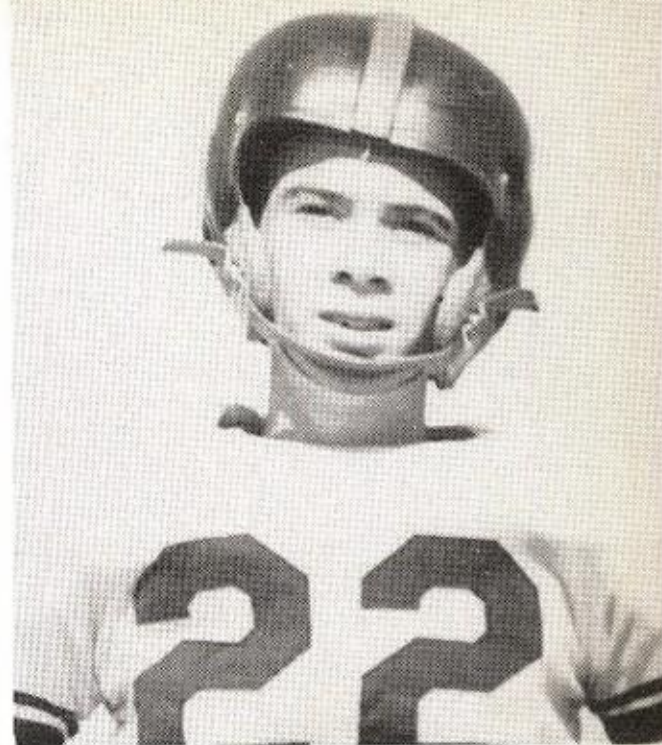

Carlile (24) is running around end and is about to be tackled by Spears (82) and Sullivan (12) of Grand Saline. Coming into the play are Cashion (36) and McKissick (28).

GEORGE BELL, 165 pound end, played only on the offensive team but was the best pass receiver on the team. This is George's first year to letter for the Black Cats and he will return to play for the Cats next year.

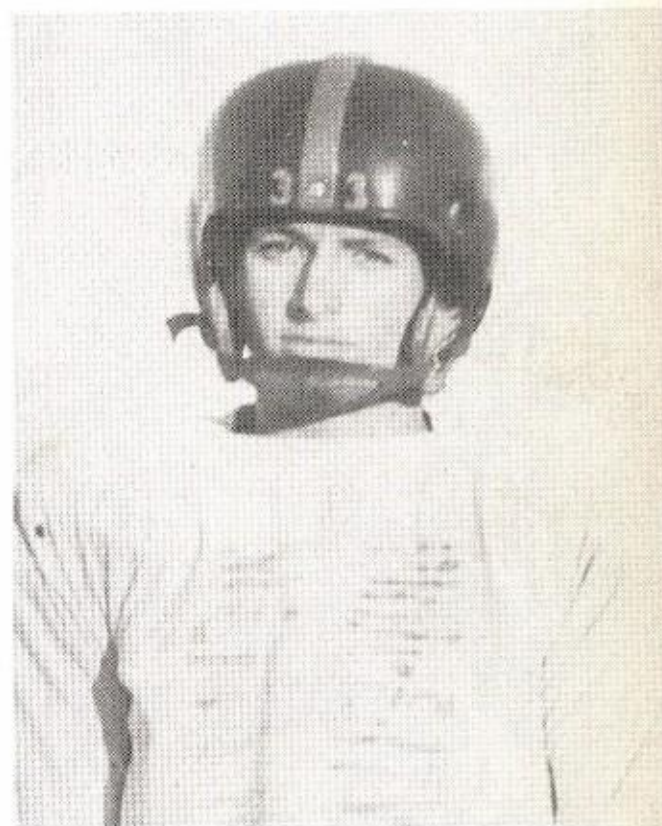

LAWRENCE DAVIS, 130 pound end was one of the lightest men on the squad but made up for his size with hustle. Davis, who played defensive safety, is a two-year letterman and will return to play for the Black Cats next year. Davis made the All-District team at an end position this year.

JAMES (BUCK) CANNON, weighs only 120 pounds and plays quarterback. Cannon is a good ball-handler and passer. Buck is a junior and this is his first year to letter for the Black Cats.

Carlile (24) is running around end and is setting up a block for Davis (29) who blocked Gregory (2) and Carlile was stopped by an unidentified Unicorn player.

BOBBY DUKE, 145 pound back, was one of the hardest running backs on the team. Duke was named to the All-District team. This is Dukes first year to letter and he will return to play for the Black Cats next year.

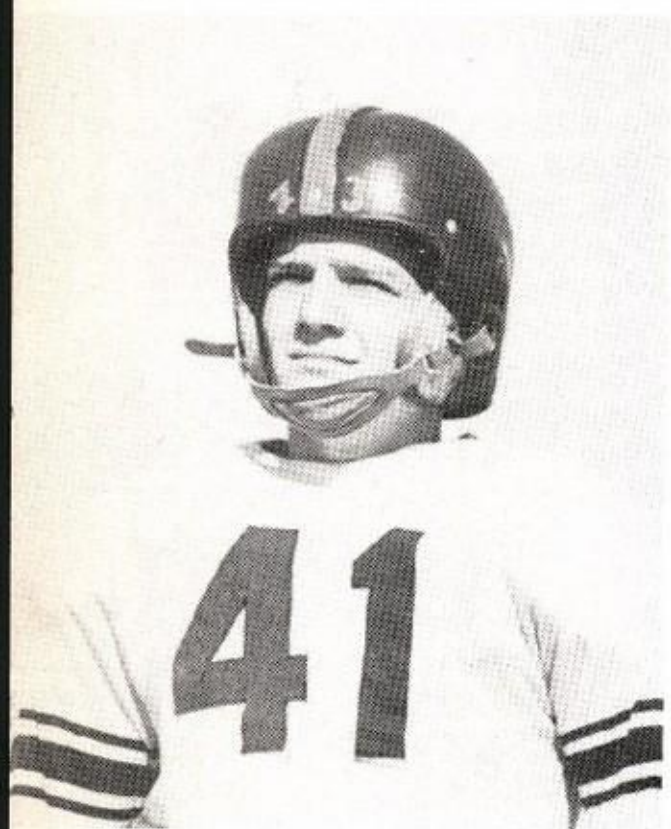

BILLY ED FELZ, 150 pound defensive line backer. Felz did all of his playing while the other side had the ball but was very important in this respect. This is Felz's first year to letter but he will be ineligible next year.

HAROLD FISHER, 160 pound tackle saw most of his action while the other side had the ball. Fisher could replace anybody in the line either on defense or offense. Fisher is a one-year letterman and will return to play for the Black Cats next year.

THOMAS TRUELOVE, 160 pound center, is a junior one-year letterman. Truelove was important to the team because he could replace anybody in the defensive line. Thomas will return to play for the Black Cats next year.

RONNIE BURROWS, Mexia's star line backer weighs only 140 pounds. Ronnie missed part of the season because of an injured back. Burrows is a sophomore and has two more years of eligibility left.

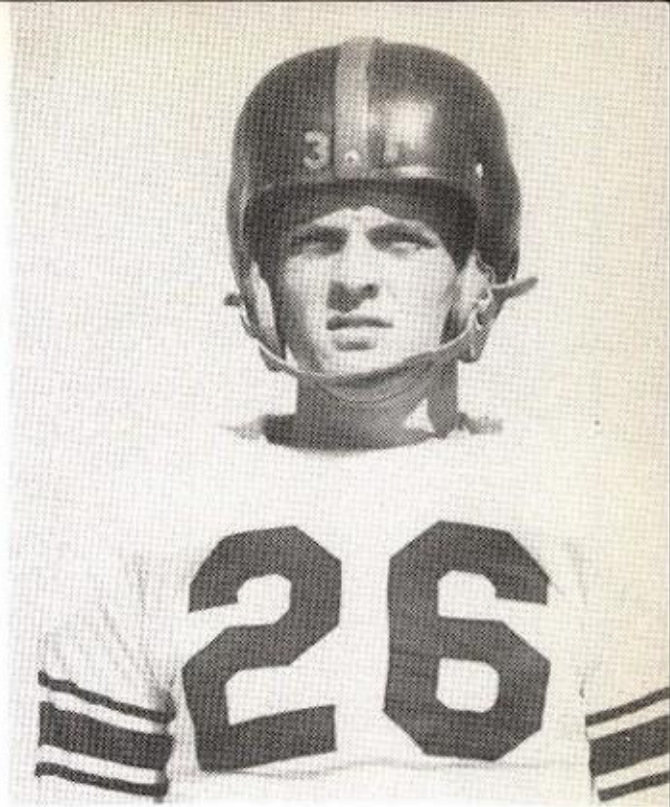

Carlile (24) is being stopped by Paradeaux (27) and an unidentified Uvalde player; Capt (25) and Haby (20) are moving in to make the tackle secure. Moving on the play are Davis (29), Lambert (34), Wright (40) and Hollinsworth (35) and Simmons (34).

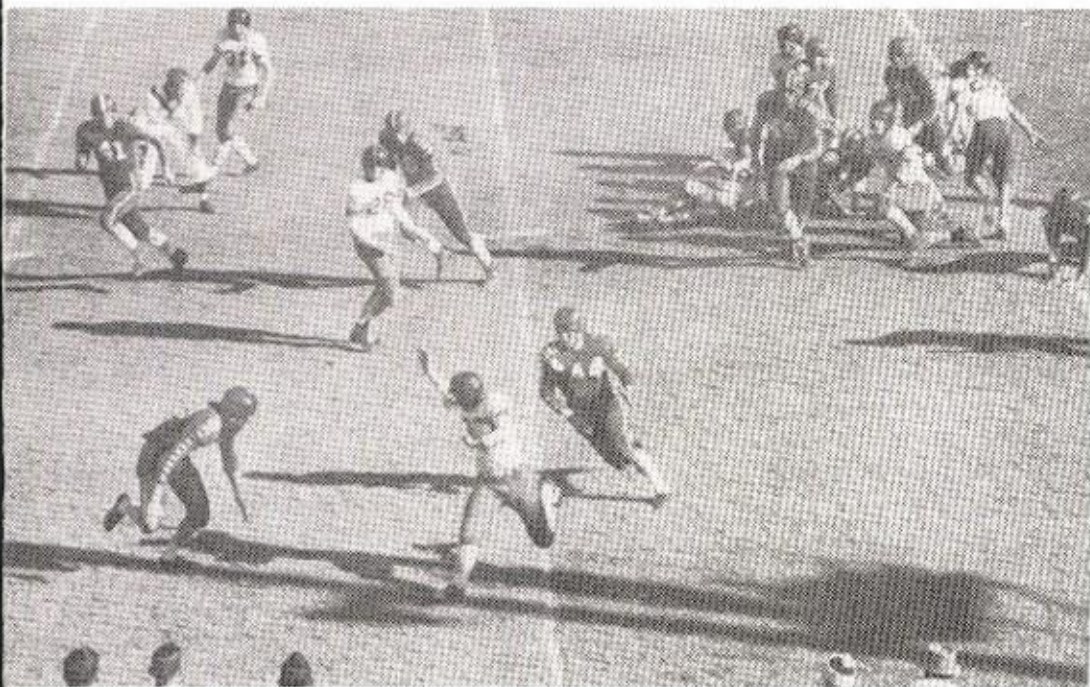

EDDIE CANNON, 136 pound back, was the extra point specialist for the Black Cats. This is Eddie's first year to letter for the Black Cats and he has two more years of eligibility left. Cannon has kicked 26 extra points and one field goal during the season.

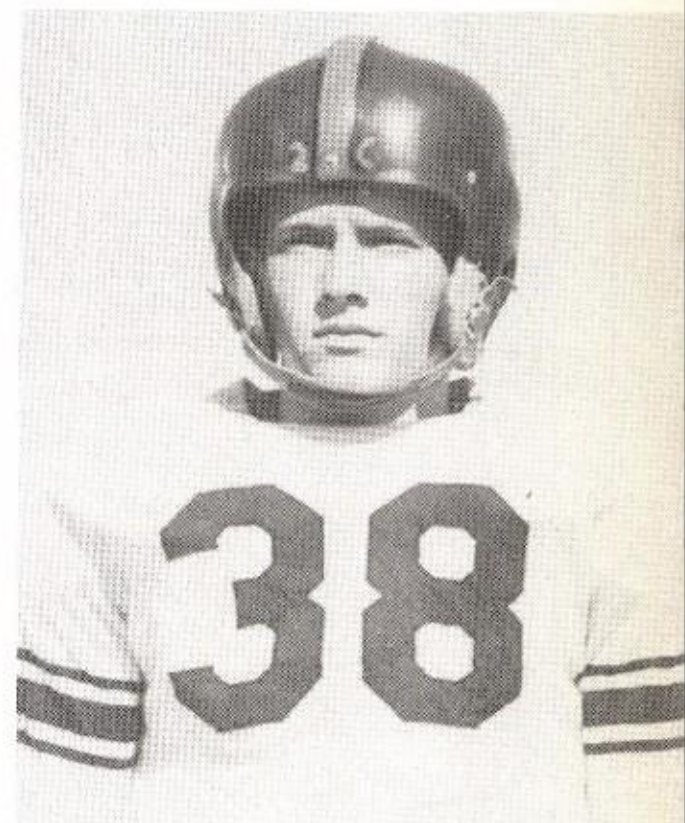

EUGENE YARBROUGH, 165 pound end. Yarbrough is a sophomore and this is his first year to letter for the Black Cats. Eugene missed all the games after the Groesbeck game because of a broken leg.

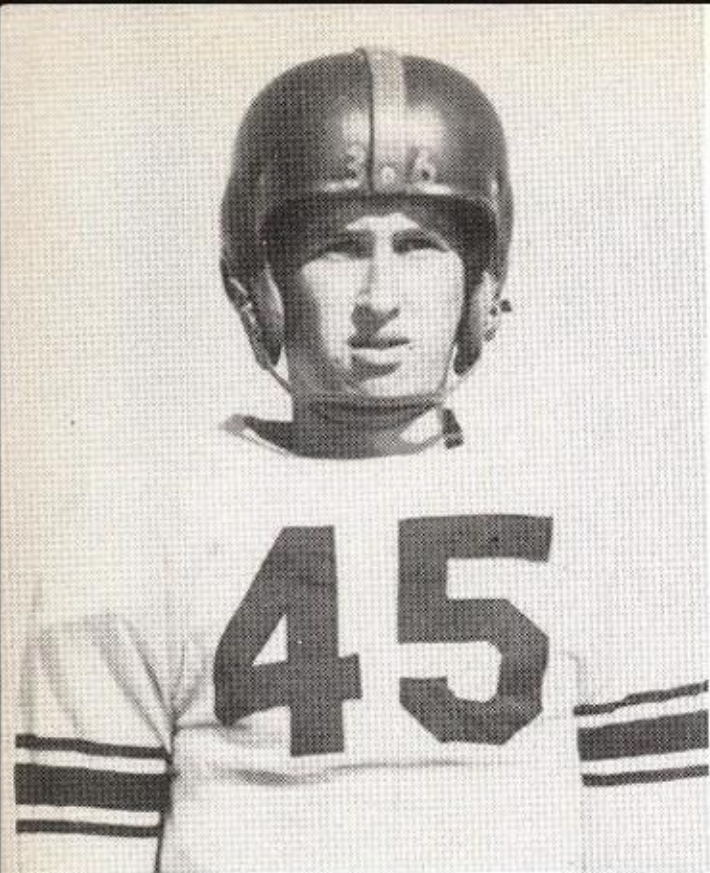

BRUCE OUTLAW, 150 pound back, was the fastest man on the Mexia team. Outlaw was the second highest scorer on the team with 54 points. Outlaw is a freshman and this is his first year to letter for the Black Cats.

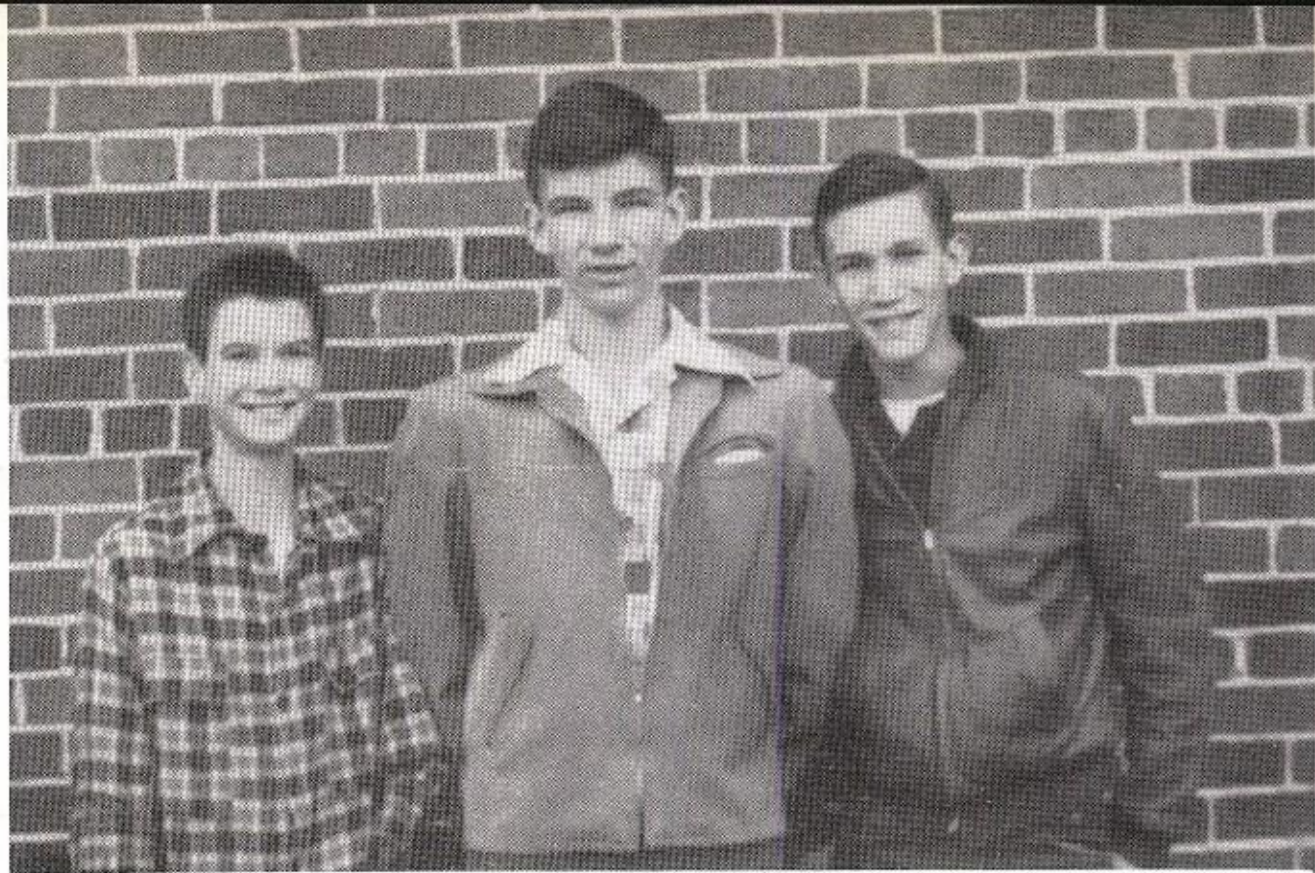

Duke (23) is about to be brought down by Bailes (44) and Gage. Moving in to make the tackle secure are Cotter (49), Fowler (46), and Goff (41). Bell (31), Outlaw (26), Davis (29) and Cashion (36) can also be seen.

EDDIE HENDERSON, 150 pound guard was one of the toughest men on the squad. This is Eddie's first year to letter and he will return to play for the Black Cats next year.

CHARLES GUNN, 175 pound tackle is only a sophomore. This is Gunn's first year to letter for the Black Cats and he has two more years of eligibility left.
